ROB DENTAL OFFICE OF GOLD LAST NIGHT

LOCAL TALENT SAID TO HAVE ENTERED DR. HAMILTON'S
OFFICE.

ATTEMPT TO ENTER OTHER OFFICES

Evidence of Entrance Into Office of
Dr. Moss—Find Boys' Finger
Prints in Dust.

Robbers entered the office of Dr. Frank L. Hamilton in the City National bank building during Tuesday night and secured between $70 and $75 worth of gold which the dentist had left outside his safe. During the night an attempt was also made to rob the office of Dr. Z. W. Moss, but as nothing has been missed from the latter's office it is believed the attempt was unsuccessful.

The entrance to Dr. Hamilton's office was undoubtedly gained by the use of a skeleton key, with which the door was easily opened, for there are no marks of the lock having been forced. Yesterday the doctor received a consignment of gold leaf, which is used in fillings, and as he was busy at the time he placed it on top of his instrument cabinet, and he neglected to put it in the safe when he discontinued business for the day. This morning the doctor missed his gold and at once notified the officers, but a thorough investigation failed to give the officers any clew.

Tried to Open Safe.

At the Moss office it was learned this morning that an attempt had been made to open the safe, as the combination was not left in the position it had been last night, but an investigation showed that nothing had been taken from the office.

However, in their search, the officers found the finger prints of a boy's hand in the dust over the transom, indicating that a lad had tried to enter that way. The fact that none of the dust on the transom sill had been disturbed indicates that the attempt to get in the room was unsuccessful, and accordingly the officers are of the opinion that a skeleton key was used there, as it was at Dr. Hamilton's office.

Local Talent.

For a time it was believed the robberies were the work of a gang of thieves who have been pilfering dentists' offices in the central part of the state, but the discovery of the boy's finger marks on the transom sill at Dr. Moss' office, and the fact that the safe there was not opened, leads the officers to believe that the thefts were the work of local parties.

FISH CLUB MEETS.

The Fish club will meet at eight o'clock this evening at Staples' undertaking rooms, and as considerable important business will come up, all of the members are asked to be present.

UP ON EXHIBITION.

On exhibition in the window at Trein's jewelry store are the regimental cup and a large number of medals which the sharpshooters of Company G have won recently, and cap being returned to the store after the last contest, which was held at Rock Island recently.

REFEREE HAS NOT ### RECEIVED WORD

The position in bankruptcy court was filled in the United States district court at Freeport by A. G. VanPatten Monday evening, has not yet been received by Referee in Bankruptcy Henry S. Dixon of this city, and accordingly no information regarding Mr. VanPatten's creditors is obtainable.

NO MORE LAST MINUTE

SCHOOL TICKETS

Under terms of the new amendment of the Illinois school law which became effective July 1, springing school tickets at the last minute will be a thing of the past. The law provides for the Australian ballot with nominations filed at least five days before the election. The cost of printing will be from school funds and will not be borne by candidates, as hitherto.

COPPER MINERS STRIKE.

Calumet, Mich., July 23—Special to Telegraph—Over 20,000 copper miners of the Copper Peninsula, went on strike this morning, completely closing up twenty mines in four counties. The men demand shorter hours and an increase in wages. The Calumet and Hecla, the largest copper producers in the world, are been shut down.

MAKE GOOD USE OF SURPLUS ROCK

ROCK REMOVED TO ALLOW PAVING IS NEEDED IN OTHER PLACES.

The street department is making good use of the stone macadam which is being excavated for the Commercial alley and Ottawa avenue pavement in repairing other streets in the city which have been in need of attention for some time.

The stone which is being taken out of the streets for the brick work is good rock and when spread on other streets and rolled will make good thoroughfares. Part of it is being spread on First street east of Dixon avenue, while a great deal of the rock is being placed south of the gate to Oakwood cemetery. This latter highway has long been in need of improvement, as there is nothing there but sand, but none of the property owners can well afford the special assessments necessary for a permanent improvement, therefore the use of the excavated rubble on the road there is well advised.

IS RECOVERING.

Mrs. Fred Smith, who recently submitted to an operation at the Katherine Shaw Bethel hospital, was removed to her home this morning. She is reported to be recovering most satisfactorily.

TO CELEBRATE 110TH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Bloomington, July 23—Jas. Moran of Grundy county will celebrate his 110th birthday anniversary with a family reunion today. He is known as the "King of the Waupecan." When in his prime Mr. Moran was a famous athlete. In those days farmers cut grass with a scythe. At haying time competitions were arranged and a prize given to the mower cutting the largest area in a given time. Mr. Moran was always able to vanquish all competitors. The contests took place in the Waupecan valley. His feats with the scythe thus brought him to him the title, "King of the Waupecan." Mr. Moran was born in County Mayo, Ireland, July 23, 1803. He came to Illinois with the early settlers. He has three daughters: Mrs. Wm. Marshall of Blue Island; Mrs. Dora Weber of Morris; and Anna, who is his housekeeper. His wife died when he was 69.

TOOK GODFREY CASE

UNDER ADVISEMENT

The arguments in the Godfrey vs. Watson ejectment suit, which were heard in the circuit court yesterday, in which Miss Katherine Godfrey argued her own case, were completed late in the afternoon and Judge O. E. Heard announced that he would take the case under advisement. He then adjourned court until August 11th.

IS NO BETTER.

The venerable John C. Leake, who has been quite ill for some time, is reported to be no better today.

Mid-Summer Harvest Sale in Dixon Stores July 19th to 26th

HEAP OF RUSTY WIRE IS VERY UNSIGHTLY

RESIDENTS OF FIRST STREET
OBJECT TO RUBBISH
FROM MILL.

It has been fittingly suggested that Dixon people who wish to manufacture one of the new style fly traps, which are being used so successfully in the business section of the city, can easily obtain sufficient wire cloth for such purpose from the junk pile at the rear of the Reynolds wire mill, which junk pile, incidentally, is right in the heart of the city and will be passed by visitors to the hospital who, when the present improvements are completed, will view this pile of rusty wire, from a beautifully paved street. The contrast will undoubtedly set forth the beauties of the pavement.

Contrasting Spirit.

In striking contrast to this condition is the effort of the park commissioners to beautify the north bank of the river. The commissioners have cleared the weeds off the bank from the dam to Jefferson avenue, and at regular intervals have installed benches, which are imbedded in concrete and which are proving most popular with the public, for there is not a pleasant evening that these benches are not all occupied by people who enjoy the river and scenery along it.

JOHN KELLEY EXPECTED HOME.

John Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelley of East Second street, expects to leave California, where he has been for some time, on August 4th and will come home for a visit with his parents. Mr. Kelley has been doing very well in the west and likes the country, but his friends here hope that he can be prevailed upon to stay in Dixon when they get him back here. John is a very popular young man and will be welcomed back by his many friends.

MOOSE TO DEDICATE

NEW STATE HOME

The Loyal Order of Moose will hold their regular meeting this evening and every member should attend. In order to help arrange for as many as can to attend the dedication of the Moose Home at Aurora on Sunday, July 27, the secretary has received badges suitable for the occasion and any member wishing to purchase one can do so from the secretary, either this evening at the hall or any day this week at the Earl grocery store.

NEW SWINE DISEASE SAID

TO BE PNEUMONIA

The Chadwick Clarion says the new swine disease, generally said to be pneumonia, made a clean sweep of Ed Lamereaux' herd and his neighbor, Peters. That Harry Linskill is a heavy loser. He had a herd of 216 young pigs which he says are dropping dead like flies in the fall. The disease is spreading in the neighborhood and the Clarion says no end is in sight.

ABOUT THE BRIDGE.

Editor Telegraph:

I was very much pleased to read your editorial on sprinkling the bridge. I am also glad that the mayor has finally come to the conclusion that sprinkling the bridge is a good thing as he has been one of the greatest objectors. His instructions to me have been to stop sprinkling, but as the bridge was in my department, and I knew how the majority of the people felt about it, I did not heed his instructions.

(Signed) J. D. VANBIBBER.

WANT SUNDAY POOL.

A number of Freeport aldermen favor an ordinance allowing Sunday pool in that city and the council will be asked to act on such a measure.

Walter Thomas visited with Dixon friends today.

TO ENTER ORDERS IN PAVING CASE

JUDGE CLARITY WILL GIVE HIS DECISION ON SECOND ST.
THIS EVENING.

Judge A. J. Clarity of the Stephenson county court, will come to Dixon this afternoon at 5 o'clock, according to a telephone message received from him today, and at that time he will enter his decision in the Second street paving case, which he has had under advisement for nearly two weeks. The judge expected to get to Dixon at 11 o'clock this morning and render his decision at 1:30 this afternoon, but missed his train at Freeport and accordingly had to reset the time for announcing his findings.

BAND CONCERT THURSDAY EVE

DIXON MARINE BAND WILL SER-
ENADE PUBLIC FROM Y.
M. C. A. PORCH.

The Dixon Marine band will again entertain the public with an open air concert on the veranda at the Y. M. C. A. building tomorrow evening, and as the concerts thus far this summer have proven especially pleasant, it is assured that a large crowd will listen to the musicians tomorrow evening. Prof. Smith and his band members have been practicing faithfully and have prepared a number of new selections for the program tomorrow evening.

YOUTH HURT IN A FIGHT.

Peoria: Joseph Sunlin, a young man employed at the Keystone Steel and Wire company's plant in South Bartonville, was severely beaten and now lies in a dangerous condition in his bed at the Grace hotel, and Louis Arlington, another employee, was slugged and two others, helpers at the same plant, were beaten almost to insensibility by a party of men in a fight at Walnut and Adams streets. The attack was claimed by the victims to have been made by a party of professional sluggers hired by the local machinists' union, which has been having considerable trouble at the Keystone plant during the past few weeks.

SMUT COSTS FARMERS

$40,000 IN ONE COUNTY
It is conservatively estimated that $40,500 have been lost in Livingston county this year on account of smut disease in oats, according to J. C. Bishop, county crop expert. The Livingston County Soil and Crop improvement association last spring made a campaign against smut in oats and as a result some of the progressive farmers of the county treated their seed oats with a solution of formaldehyde. Now heads where the seed was treated are free from smut disease, while the crops in the other fields have from 10 to 30 per cent of the heads destroyed.

MICHAEL McGINNIS FUNERAL THURSDAY

CITIZEN OF DIXON FOR MANY YEARS—FUNERAL IN MENDOTA.

The funeral of Michael McGinnis, who died at his home, 1023 Peoria avenue, early Tuesday morning, will be held at the house at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and the remains will then be taken to Mendota, on the 11:18 train, for interment in the family lot there.

Mr. McGinnis was born in Austinbrook, Canada, Jan. 2, 1827. In the year 1852 he came to Illinois and entered the employ of the Burlington railroad as a contractor, residing at Mendota, Jan. 15, 1856, he was married to Miss Emily Douglas of New York, who preceded him in death several years ago. Eight children were born to this union: Dr. John C. of Aurora, Thomas A. of Lajarra, Cal.; Jennie M., at home; Mrs. Jessie S. Johnson, of this city; Mrs. Susan B. Russell, of Alameda, Cal.; William R., Dixon; Nan D., who passed away several years ago, and Dr. George McGinnis of Arizona.

PARCEL POST TO INCREASE.

New Order From Postmaster General
Will Boost Postal Receipts—
Auto Delivery.

As a result of the order issued by Postmaster General Burleson increasing the maximum weight of parcels from 11 to 20 pounds, effective Aug. 15th, the postoffice receipts are expected to greatly increase. Under the new order the local office will take over much of the business in the heavier class that has heretofore fallen to the express companies.

On the same day other changes in the parcel post will go into effect one being a material reduction in the postage rates in the first and second zones and the abandonment of the parcel post map as a means of computing rates and the substitution of a rate chart individualized to every postoffice in the United States. It is also planned to purchase autos to be used exclusively for the delivery of parcel post matter and it is expected that the local office will receive one.

GYPSIES ON MOVE

TO ELECT NEW KING

Champaign, July 23—Long gypsy caravans wound over central Illinois roads this week bound for Mexico, Mo., where the new king of the large Mitchell tribe will be elected and crowned according to the gypsy ceremonial. In other states similar movements occurred, for the word had gone out that the old king is dead.

The bands which traversed Illinois this week had just buried the old king of the clan at Danville. King Nicholas was burned three weeks ago. Since that time hundreds of gypsy trains have halted at the cemetery to gaze on the grave of the dead ruler.

King Tom Nicholas had ruled the Nicholas or Mitchell tribe for thirty years. His successor has been selected and the gathering at Mexico is a ratification.

The new king, to be formally elected when fragments of the tribe, all headed toward the Missouri city, unite, is Emil Mitchell, a nephew of the late king, and who is already a king. He is ruler of all the gypsies of the United States. He has papers, signed by former President Taft and former Secretary of State Knox proclaiming that he is the recognized chieftain of American gypsies.

King Mitchell is said to be a member of the Masonic order. At least a Masonic emblem is painted on the side of the wagon in which he lives.

Madame Kent has returned from an over Sunday visit in Chicago. Geo. Wilcox of Sterling was here today.

FUNERAL OF MRS. TIPPET THURSDAY

SAD CEREMONY TO BE HELD AT FAMILY HOME TOMORROW
AFTERNOON.

The funeral of Mrs. Stephen Tippet, who died suddenly on Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Howard of Brooklyn, Ia., where she was visiting, will be held at the family home, 116 Monroe avenue, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Burial will be at Oakwood cemetery. The remains, accompanied by Mr. Tippet, will arrive in Dixon at 8:35 o'clock this evening and will be taken at once to the home.

MISS SARAH MILLER DIED EARLY TODAY

PASSED AWAY AT 6 A. M.—FUN-
ERAL HERE ON FRIDAY
AFTERNOON.

Miss Sarah Miller of 318 Logan avenue, passed away at 6 o'clock this morning after a long illness, and, while her condition was known to be serious, the news of her death is a decided shock to many friends. The funeral will be held at the home at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon and at 3 o'clock at the Prairieville cemetery, with burial at that place. Dr. Altman will officiate. The obituary will be published later.

AVERYVILLE MAN DISAPPEARS.

Peoria: Somewhere in the country it is believed by his family, Chas. A. Johnson, contractor, 491 Rock Island avenue, Averyville, is wandering about aimlessly with his mind affected by the heat. He disappeared last Monday and was last seen at 5 p. m. that day coming from a building across from the court house. A person acquainted with him saw him walk toward Hamilton street. The next day his wife, whom he loved devotedly, received the following message:

"Dear Kit: When this reaches you I will be beyond human aid."

The note was signed "Charles," and written on stationery of the Beach hotel. Detectives have interrogated both the day and night clerks at the hotel, but neither of them remembered seeing the man in the hotel last Monday.

NO MORE FREE LUNCHES.

Joliet: The saloon keepers here are planning to cut out free lunches. The act will result from mutual agreement, if carried out, and not as a result of any action on the part of the city council. The lunches being served in the saloons here cost the proprietors from $5 to $10 a day and are not regarded as business bringers. In the hope of cutting out this expense it is planned to hold a meeting of all the proprietors in the near future, at which time an agreement will be sought whereby every saloon in the city will do away with lunches. Pretzels, however, will not be barred.

LIKE NEW CAR SERVICE.

The new street car service for West Fellows street, Swissville and River road district, is proving decidedly popular and with a continuance of the present patronage will doubtless become a permanent fixture. Residents in that section of the city are finding it especially convenient.

LOCAL FISHERMEN ARE IN SYM-PATHY WITH EFFORTS TO PRESERVE FISH.

CANNOT KEEP SMALL FISH

Law States the Length Fish Must Be —Small One Must Be Returned to the Water.

Harry Wheeler of this city has received a copy of the new state fish law, which has some interesting features. The various provisions of the new law are interesting to the fishermen of this locality, and will make a difference in the hauls of some of the sportsmen, for the new law is very strict and prohibits catching and keeping of fish over stated sizes. All undersize fish must be returned to the waters from which they are taken immediately and unharmed. A complete synopsis of the new law follows:

The commission is empowered and authorized to set aside waters as State Fish Preserves, in which it is unlawful to fish with any device except hand line or rod and line. White fish and trout may be taken and caught only with gill nets and pound nets, the meshes of which are not less than 2 1/2 inches square, from Dec. 1 of any year to Nov. 1 of the next succeeding year.

Only chubs, long jaws, black fins, herring and lake perch may be caught and taken with gill nets, dip nets and with pound nets, meshes of which are not less than 1 1/2 inches square, provided it can be shown that not over ten per cent of the entire catch taken in such nets at any one lift shall consist of trout of a less weight than 1 1/4 pounds, dressed, each, and provided that such trout so caught or taken may be sold at, but shall not be shipped from the

Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life.

Letter from Twin Falls, Idaho

The following letter from a former Dixon girl, will be of interest to friend of Mrs. Elsie Warner Self, of Twin Falls, Idaho. The following extracts were taken from a letter to a friend—

"Well, how did you spend the Fourth? Five couples of us drove out to Rock Creek, to Strickler's Ranch and believe me, I have never had a better time in all my life.

There was a ball game. Our boys played the cow punchers, and it was a tie, 7 to 7. But how we girls did "root." The cow punchers are all bow-legged, from being in the saddle so much and I wish you could have seen them come up to bat.

They invited us into their home to play the piano and sing, and the cow punchers couldn't carry a tune in a pail, but you ought to have heard them. It was great.

Then there was a dance in the evening. They have their own dance hall and it is a dandy. The floor was fine.

They treated us to ice cream, berries, cake, etc.

You should have seen us dancing with those cow punchers.

Some were in holiday regalia dressed in cow boys' chaps, patent leather shoes with purple tops, purple chief, purple tie, and purple ladies' garters, with a thermometer on them for sleeve holders. (Class A.) Then others had the regulation overalls and jumpers, with flaming chief around their necks, and high-heeled boots, with spurs on four or five inches long, and a sombrero.

They danced with their hats on, but in every respect they acted like perfect gentlemen, and were so anxious for us to have a good time.

We had two kodaks and they posed for us about a dozen times, and seemed more than pleased to do it.

Believe me, those people certainly showed us what the true Western hospitality is. Nothing too good for you.

But I tell you those people are enjoying life; sometimes I wonder if we really know what the value of enjoying life is.

They have had so many varied experiences in their time, and are such broad minded people.

Well, I must soon ring off for it is later than I thought it was.

W. F. M. S. to Meet.

DIXON WOMEN MAY VOTE NEXT TUESDAY

LOCAL SUFFRAGE WILL HAVE FIRST OPPORTUNITY TO EXERCISE FRANCHISE.

NOTHING HEARD OF WATER FRANCHISE

Subject Which is to Be Voted Upon At Tuesday's Election Has Not Been Discussed—Suffrage Law.

Although the election on the new waterworks franchise is less than a week away there is almost a total absence of discussion on the question and if there is an organized opposition to the adoption and ratification of the franchise it has failed to make itself heard.

Considerable additional interest will attach to the election which will be held next Tuesday, inasmuch as the women of the city of Dixon will at this time have their first opportunity to vote, and in accordance with the law the city officials will have to provide separate ballot boxes and separate ballots for the women. The text of the suffrage law, which has not been given in full in this vicinity, is:

A BILL

For an act granting the women the right to vote for presidential electors and certain other officers, and to participate and vote in certain matters and elections.

Section 1.—Be it enacted by the people of the state of Illinois, represented by the General Assembly: That all women citizens of this United States, above the age of 21 years, having resided in the state one year, in the county 90 days and in the election district 30 days next preceding any election therein, shall be allowed to vote at such election for presidential electors, members of the state board of equalization, clerk of the appellate court, county collector, county surveyor, members of the board of review, sanitary district trustees and for all offices of cities, villages and towns (except police magistrates) and upon all questions or propositions submitted to a vote of the electors of such municipalities or other political divisions of this state.

Section 2.—All such women may also vote for the following township officers: Supervisors, town clerk, assessor, collector and highway commissioner and may participate and vote in all annual and special town meetings in the township in which such election districts shall be.

Section 3.—Separate ballot boxes and ballots shall be provided for women which shall contain the names of candidates for such offices which are to be voted for and the special questions submitted as aforesaid and the ballots cast by women shall be canvassed with the other ballots cast for such officers and on all such questions. At any election where registration is required women shall register in the same manner as male voters.

ECZEMA SPREAD ALL OVER BODY

Began on Cheeks With Pimples. Itched Badly. Caused Disfigurement. Had to Put Mittens on Him. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Eczema Left Him.

Roxbury, Ohio.—"When my little boy was two weeks old he began breaking out on his cheeks. The eczema began just with pimples and they seemed to itch so badly he would scratch his face and cause a matter to run. Wherever that matter would touch, it would cause another pimple until it spread all over his body. It caused disfigurement while he lasted. He had fifteen places on one arm and his head had several. The deepest places on his cheeks were as large as a silver dollar on each side. He was so restless at night we had to put mittens on him to keep him from scratching them with his finger nails. He could not sleep because I put those mittens on which would not allow him to scratch and then he would wake up and be cross. If he got a little too warm at night it seemed to hurt badly. We tried a treatment and he didn't get any better. He had the eczema about three weeks when we began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I bathed him at night with the Cuticura Soap and spread the Cuticura Ointment on and the eczema left." (Signed) Mrs. John White, Mar. 19, 1913.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for poor complexions, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, and cost so little, that it is almost criminal not to use them. Sold everywhere. Sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. book on the skin and scalp. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

SEVERE CASES SOLICITED

NO CUTTING
NO INJECTIONS
NO PARAFFINE WAX
For 20 years I have made the treatment of rupture my specialty. You need not lay off from work while being treated as I use neither knife nor injections. The treatment is so mild that I treat infants and old people.

If ruptured on one or both sides, call or write for information. No matter how long you have been ruptured, get my free opinion. Do not neglect your rupture because it is small and does not annoy you. Because you are in danger of strangulation. Remember that large ruptures were once small, hence the sooner you begin treatment the quicker a cure can be effected. If you must wear a truss for comfort and safety, wear

BAREFOOTED MURDERER BEING SOUGHT

Danville: Barefooted, bareheaded and countless, a man supposed to be named Moscow from letters found in his coat, is being sought for the murder of a tramp in a box car at Tilton. Jacob Dickman, another tramp, residing at St. Louis, was released after a police investigation. Dickman claimed he heard shots fired in a box car in the Wabash yard near Tilton, and saw a man without hat or coat, and barefooted leap from the car and flee toward this city.

A man was found dead in the car with two bullets in his body. The murderer was seen hurrying thru Danville on the railroad tracks by several but delay in notifying the police prevented his capture.

LAWRENCE WHITE PAROLED?

Aurora: Lawrence White, sentenced to serve from one year to life in the Joliet penitentiary for murdering Harry Levy, a restaurant keeper at Ottawa, a few years ago, is to be paroled. It was reported from Joliet where the pardon board was in session. White and Levy both have relatives at Oswego and Aurora. Both men were well known here. White contested the prosecution and set up a claim of self defense. Representative Lee O'Neil Browne made a hard legal fight to save his client. The star witness was an Aurora youth, who was employed in the Levy restaurant. His evidence alone convicted White.

DEMENTTOWN ... DOINGS

Goose Hollow Letter

It seems as though a fellow who wears a belt and suspenders at the same time is trying to beat the game by enjoying more than his share of the luxuries.

It takes a great deal of fortitude for a fellow to wear a full beard all summer, because he not only makes himself uncomfortable, but makes everybody else feel like going and jumping in the creek.

The folks who stick at home on hot Sundays and sit in the shade of the old apple tree have got it all over the folks who go skylarking around on Sunday excursions.

Down in the "dry" belt there is a middle-aged gentleman who had the misfortune some twenty years ago to lose one of his legs in a railroad accident. Since that time he has been wearing a wooden leg known in the vernacular as a "peg." Two or three years ago he decided the leg should be doing double duty. Working simply as a leg it was not exhausting its possibilities, by any means. So he hollowed the leg out and lined it with copper. The leg then held four quarts of whisky. Every time the farmer went to some convenient oasis in the desert he had the leg filled.

He had placed a small faucet in the side of the leg and any person wishing to drink of the stux that made Peoria, Ill., famous, could get it by twisting the faucet and paying the usual fee. One night not long ago, thieves broke into his house and stole the leg, making a rich haul, as the owner had just had it filled the day before.

Sixty Years Hence

James Blinks offers $5 for a piece of hard coal as large as a hen's egg. He wants it for the baby to cut its teeth on.

An automobile was seen on our streets yesterday and it attracted much attention as a relic of the old days. At high speed the old machine will run eighty-seven miles an hour. Several of our prominent aeroplane men examined the machine and were much interested in it.

With the circus which will exhibit in our city next month there is said to be the only living horse in the world. This animal was supposed to be extinct, but this specimen was found in one of the western states, and bought at a tremendous price by the circus managers. Several stuffed horses have been exhibited from time to time in the city museum, but this is the only live one seen in these parts in several years.

Professional Innuendo.

An extremely thin actress was boasting of her achievements in stock. "I have been the girl in the 'Girl of the Golden West' and the Rose in the 'Rose of the Rancho'."

Yorick Hamm looked at her. "And I suppose," said he, "that if Charley Hoyt had ever seen you, you would have been the original match in the 'Parlor Match'."

The Retort Pertinent.

"Look at me!" exclaimed the leading lawyer warmly. "I never took a drop of medicine in my life, and I am as strong as any two of your patients put together."

"Well, that's nothing," retorted the physician. "I never went to law in my life, and I'm as rich as any two dozen of your clients put together."

A TERRIBLE THOUGHT.

The Heiress—I want to be loved for myself!
Count de Broke (apprehensively)—My dear lady, is there any possibility of this being a case of mistaken identity?

A Cry From the Depths.

The autumn leaves are falling.
In places we could name.
Oh, that the cost of living
Would only do the same!

A Teutonic Teaser.

Hans—Und vy, Pat, is der no snakes in Ireland?
Pat—Begorra, and didn't holy St. Patrick drive them all away?
Hans—Naw, snakes is animals dat love peace and quiet. When der Irish came de snakes all left.—Satire.

An Amateur.

"He told me I was the only girl he had ever loved."
"And you believed him?"
"Yes, I believed him. He got the piano between us before he could get up the courage to tell me."

Always Alone.

"When are you alone in the store?" asked the friend.
"Pretty much all the time," answered the clerk. "My boss doesn't advertise."

Classified.

"He's a darned fool!"
"You mean that he is not as clever as he thinks he is?"
"I mean he is as clever as his wife thinks he is."

A Significant Detail.

"I am convinced there is something about our new neighbors they want to keep hidden."
"What makes you think that?"
"Their hired girl is deaf and dumb."

EDITORIAL

A GOOD EXAMPLE.

The Sterling papers often contain notices of residents of that city paying fines for even minor violations of their traffic regulation ordinance. A man was fined there on Tuesday for "cutting" a corner with his auto, that is, he turned too short when turning a corner to the left, instead of swinging out wide and keeping on the right-hand side of the street all the time. He paid $3 and costs, and he won't cut any more corners and endanger his own and the lives of others.

There is an ordinance in Dixon that says auto drivers shall not run past street cars that are stopped to discharge or take on passengers. That ordinance is apparently a secret, or at least nobody pays any attention to it and the close observer will notice many flagrant violations of the law every day at the downtown corners where the cars stop.

It is the history of such things that no matter how bad conditions are, they are never rectified until some terrible disaster caused by the conditions, awakens civic authorities to action and public sentiment points out the need of and demands precautionary measures.

Shall we buy an enforced set of traffic rules at the cost of a human life or two, or shall we have things regulated now, and disappoint the Grim Reaper.

If the council will recommend strictly enforced rules we believe the police department will be glad to carry them out. A few fines will have a great influence for good.

It has been suggested that some of our city officials violate speed and traffic laws about as often as any one. They can hardly expect to lay down rules for others that they do not follow themselves.

Under Suspicion.

New Brunswick, N. J.—William Rupprecht, driver of a sausage wagon, was fined five dollars by Recorder Houghton the other day for assaulting Thomas Dutton, Newark's official dog catcher, and hindering him in his work. "I can't go anywhere without this man following me," complained Dutton. "I can't catch dogs with him dogging my steps," Rupprecht said he only "wanted to see how he does it." "For a sausage man," said the recorder, "you are too much interested in dogs. Dog catching and sausage making are two separate businesses, fine you five dollars."

THE EMBARRASSMENT OF IGNORANCE.

A group of women were sitting on a hotel porch discussing cameleons.

"I have one of chiffon cloth," said one woman.

"Mine is point d'esprit, I think it is so much daintier," said another.

"Mine has the cutest little rosebuds on it," said a third. And so the conversation ran on.

Finally a new voice joined in with the questions, "What are you all talking about? What is a cameleon?"

Every face was turned toward the questioner. The gentle stream was immediately changed to a torrent of inquiries.

"Don't you know? Where have you been? Where are your eyes? Haven't you read the papers?" etc.

There is nothing so embarrassing to a woman as finding herself ignorant of some new thing her friends are not only discussing, but wearing. If this woman had read the advertisements of good newspapers regularly she could never have overlooked the existence of cameleons.

Do you know what cameleons are? If you don't you may find yourself in her position at any moment. Better begin now to read the advertising columns regularly so that you won't be caught in a similar predicament on that or any other subject of wearing apparel.

OLYMPIC—CHICAGO.

Chicago's theatrical season of '13-14 will begin Sunday night, July 27, when the Olympic theatre, inaugurating a new policy of popular prices, will open with Margaret Illington in Bayard Veiller's absorbing play of human interest, "Within the Law," with which all lovers of theatricals are more or less familiar because of the extraordinary amount of publicity that newspapers and magazines have afforded this drama.

Miss Illington, recalled for her success in "Kindling" and "The Thief," portrays in "Within the Law" a girl who, after serving three years for a crime of which she is innocent, attempts to re-establish herself among reputable people but is persecuted by the police, hounded out of honest employment and forced into a life of crime. Her revenge upon her persecutors provides a play replete with some of the most thrilling dramatic surprises the stage has recently seen.

No drama of this decade has enjoyed such popularity nor caused a more widespread sensation than "Within the Law," which is declared the greatest success New York has ever known. "As a good Edison I thank you for the play," Theodore Roosevelt wrote the author, while President Wilson said he had "never been more thrilled or interested."

Miss Illington is supported by an excellent company of great strength and during her stay at the Olympic there will be the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

The Great Majestic Range

MADE OF MALLEABLE AND CHARCOAL IRON

Malleable Iron

MALLEABLE IRON, as everybody knows, is non-breakable; it can be twisted, turned and hammered into most any shape. This enables us to cold-rivet all joints together practically air-tight. Expansion and contraction cannot loosen the joints or crack the parts, as is the case with cast iron parts that must be bolted and pasted together with stove putty.

There is no Stove cement or Putty used in making the

Majestic Range Charcoal Iron

CHARCOAL IRON is the same kind of iron used in grandfather's days. Most anyone will recall the old iron nails that can still be found sticking in fence posts, or the old stove pipe (which was made of that iron) that seemed to never wear out. Those were days before steel took the place of iron. As a contrast, glance at the steel nails used today, that rust to pieces in a year or two, or the steel stove pipe of today that hardly lasts through a season. Steel is cheaper and easier to handle than Charcoal Iron, but our experience has taught us that steel had to be replaced in Majestic Ranges with some kind of material that would stand up like the malleable parts, and after many years of experimenting-testing, etc., we found that Charcoal Iron is absolutely the best for that purpose. Charcoal Iron, by actual tests, resists rust 300 per cent greater than steel, and this fact induced us to use it in building Majestic Ranges, even though it costs a great deal more than steel. The body of the range is made in one piece and has no seams.

Our Demonstration this year takes place Sept. 29 to Oct. 4, at which time the price of the Ranges will be the same and with each range sold you will be given $8.00 worth of cooking utensils.

Wait, save up your money and be prepared to buy you a range that will give you lasting pleasure.

We want to place a Majestic Range in every home in Dixon and surrounding country, and if honest dealings and good goods will do it, we will succeed.

If we knew of a better range we would sell it. We have been in the hardware business for several years and have had some "education" in the stove business.

During that time we have learned that the Majestic has all ranges backed off the map in quality, workmanship, material, small consumption of fuel, good baking, long life and good looks.

It takes fire to make a range and fire will destroy them all in time, depending on their quality and construction.

Why buy of some nomadic agent? He never expects to see you again; he expects to DO you once and pass on to GREENER fields.

We have been in Dixon some four years and our business has each year grown; not from selling a man once, but the same man many times over.

OUR MAXIM IS "TO GIVE DIXON AND SURROUNDING COUNTRY THE BEST HARDWARE STORE IN NORTHERN ILLINOIS."

There are some 300 Majestics in use around Dixon. Ask one of your neighbors, he has one. His testimony of 10 to 25 years' service will give you more food for thought than any argument we might make.

Drop in and ask us about them. We can name many that you know. A thorough inspection of the range will acquaint you with its many superior qualities.

The 15-gallon, all-copper, nickel-plated reservoir is so constructed that a single turn of the lever moves it up in contact with the range, so it will boil. Another turn of the lever moves the reservoir away, and stops it boiling.

No soot or ashes can get out around the reservoir, as there is no connection between the reservoir and range.

The reservoir can be removed from range at any time by simply carrying it away.

TENOR IN WORKHOUSE

Derelict With Great Voice Sings Himself Out of Prison to Sick Wife.

By SUNDAY NELLIM.

"The way of the transgressor is straight," the cleric veered, with kindness aforethought, and supplied a crumb of comfort instead of censure.

"The way of the transgressor may anon be bordered with roses of sweet peace and solitude. The moments of bygone days may drift back to you and tide your souls heavenward. In your hearts you are not bad. You have perhaps sinned and your sins have identified you. But that does not hold you from about-facing to home and loved ones, who still trust you. There is good ahead. When you have paid the county, its penalty be sure you show that sin's identity was not complete."

It was song service day at the workhouse.

"Now," said the minister, "let's sing that good old song, 'Bless'd Be the Tie That Binds.' Everybody sing. Many of you have good voices."

The little chapel organ began and the leaders plucked the tune. Before the second verse was reached the chapel was filled with music. Then—

The visitors bent forward and scanned the faces of the prisoners. A voice somewhere among them rang out in rich tenor, clear and clean as a clarion call. It carried its notes as might a super-chorister. The old song echoed and re-echoed through the cell halls, and the tenor led all the rest.

There was a voice that might have drawn encores and encore from the most fastidious and critical audience. Yet it was among the prisoners. But where?

The third verse was beginning when the rapturous tenor was located. His head was thrown back and his eyes, beaming with some secret vision,

Looked Up Through the Bars to the Sky.

The face had passed out of that beauty it possessed when he sang. It was marked by inebrity. Yet withal, the external viciousness was pierced by inherited touches of refinement from beneath.

"Where did you get that voice—that tenor?" one asked abruptly.

"Oh, I thought you had another warrant for me—when I get out. Is that all you want? Honest?"

"We have no warrant for you. We do not know anything about you. But we want to know about yourself: about that voice. We've come to help you. That tenor has no place in a workhouse."

"So that's why you watched me? I didn't know. I asked the boys not to let you find me."

"It's that voice—that voice. Tell us, did you ever sing in opera?" a critic put in.

"In opera? No. I haven't sung in years—till that day. I guess I have been too busy at the foam to sing. Is that why you came?"

They had found a singer who had not found himself. They led him to talk.

"When I was a boy I used to sing in Sunday school. A big fellow from the church choir once told me that I would be a great singer some day; that I had a voice to be envied. But I never tried. When I got grown I followed the boys. I've been here before—after a whiz—and that day was the first time I ever sang like a man. The sky-guide somehow got on my nerves and made me forget. I have been in this time fifty-five days. Just got five now. I'm glad, too, for I'll never be back. Worst time I could have picked."

The singer paused and swallowed hard.

"Wife's sick—God's best little woman; little girl—my one best bet—she's got diphtheria. I got to thinking when the fellow said I was not bad, and when he started the old song I had to sing—Will you saw me. I've got a good voice? Do you know if it might help—?"

"e stopped and turned back to the little window. He looked up through the bars to the sky and his face regained some of that sunlight it had when he sang. Then he faced about.

"If my baby can live—"

They stopped him before he could make his pledge.

"You will be out tonight," said one who seemed to know. "The mayor will pardon you this afternoon. Sing the sick ones back to health, then come to me some day. I will tell you something worth while."

The big tenor's face stared wonderingly into the future.

They shook hands with him and passed down the corridors. No one spoke. But as they neared the end of the cell rows they heard a song following, passing, leading them. It seemed on its way to the former derelict home.

And as they passed out the groaning gates the silvery tenor notes bore to them the beatitude.

"Bless'd be the tie that binds." (Copyright, 1912, by W. G. Chapman.)

Hatpin Novelties.

As many of the lovely supple felt hatpins are entirely untrimmed, they depend on the hat pins to break the monotony, and of these I like best the delicately carved tinted horn. A couple of graceful dragon-flies with long, slender, blue-green wings, or big gold and brown bumble-bees, soft and fluffy looking, or perhaps a dainty flower-head in natural tints—are all charming in the soft velvet-felt hats. For more ceremonious millinery, "chapeaux de style," the pins should be in paste and baroque pearls, finely mounted. Parisians are also wearing shell and amber pins, but these should be real, otherwise they are soon scratched and shabby.

Dame Fashion's Fads.

Many of the new gowns have their skirts caught at the foot by buttons and crumpled straps.

The fad for making one side of the bodice different from the other is as much as ever in evidence.

Frau de soleil, a fabric with the dull finish of suede and the softness of silk, is a favorite this season.

The fashion for browns in dull wood and fur tones without any hint of yellow is assured.

The extreme empire lines on which some of the newest creations of the French couturiers are cut seem to defy the so-called tendency to return to the normal waist line.

Damask Satin Gowns.

Very soft damask satins make delightful evening gowns, chosen in some old world shade of Marie Antoinette blue or Malmalson pink, and made with slightly full and very graceful skirts, spreading out into long trains and borders—rich mink, skunk or sable. As a rule, the bodices of these gowns are arranged quite simply with fish folds which come from either shoulder, bordered with a single cascade of diamond trimming, while the sleeves are made in a kimono shape and edged with fur.

Why Not?

"I'm feeling well today, my mind is at ease, and my business is good."

"Why are you going around telling people that?"

"Why, we always put up a holler when things go wrong. Why shouldn't we occasionally admit that things are going right?"

Not for Him.

"And," concluded the Sunday school teacher, "if you are a good boy, Tommy, you will go to Heaven and have a gold crown on your head."

"Not much," said Tommy; "I had one of them things put on a tooth once!"—Ladies' Home Journal.

Slightest Jar or Movement Means a Fractured Ankle, Thigh or Arms to Margaret Williams of Medora—Legs Have Been Broken Seventy Times.

Hutchinson, Kan.—The victim of a rare disease of the bones, Margaret Williams, the twelve-year-old daughter of a wealthy farmer living near Medora, has suffered seventy fractures of the legs and more than a dozen of the arms. Ever since she has been old enough to walk the bones of her legs and arms have snapped at the slightest jar or quick movement. Her legs and arms are gnarled from the numerous fractures.

Physicians who have treated the girl say her bones lack some element. They are soft and spongy. Her leg bones are not strong enough to support her and the least jar or shock results in a fracture.

When she was barely two years old, just beginning to walk, her leg bones first broke. Her parents believed she had fallen too heavily. Later, as she was growing, every now and then a bone would break. Sometimes it was the shin, more frequently the thigh, and occasionally a bone of the foot.

Fortunately for the girl, she did not suffer as much pain from these fractures as do others under normal conditions, but as she grew older the fractures became more painful and she suffered greatly. It was necessary to treat the fractures the same as in other cases and the child spent fully one half of her time lying helpless with her legs in splints.

Not only her legs, but her arms were affected similarly. The arms were not broken as often as the legs, however, as they did not bear her weight. But every little jar or push with her hands means a fractured arm or wrist.

The parents of the girl say they do not know how many times their daughter's bones have been fractured. They know of seventy times that her legs have been broken, but they have kept no count of the other breaks. Margaret now rides in an arm wheel chair. It is dangerous for her to take a step. The last time her legs were broken was about three months ago when she attempted to cross a room. Both legs gave way under the weight of her body. That was almost too much for the bone-broken little girl, but now she is cheerful again.

SCOTCH COLLIE HUSKS CORN

Farmer Owns Dog Which, Standing on Hind Legs, Tears Ear Off With Teeth.

Stanberry, Mo.—H. P. Allen, a farmer living near here, is the owner of a Scotch collie dog which he highly values because it is a good corn husker. The animal will go out in the field with Allen's employees and keep up with many of them in corn husking.

When the season opened the dog followed the wagon and with apparent interest watched the process of husking. Finally the animal ran to one of the corn stalks and, standing on his hind feet, pulled down the stalk, grabbed the ear and broke it off with his teeth.

With teeth and forepaws he husked the ear and then ran and yielded it to his master to be thrown into the wagon. Highly pleased with his first efforts, the animal ran to another stalk and repeated the operation again and again.

The dog is a year and a half old and this season Allen claims he has husked hundreds of bushels of corn.

Only one trouble has arisen: the animal's claws are beginning to wear down from the husking and Allen is considering fastening some kind of a husking peg on his front feet so the animal can husk the corn and not wear down his claws.

New Nose From a Rib.

St. Louis, Mo.—James Wilson of this city has ordered a new nose. The requisition was put in at the city hospital, where Wilson is a patient, and was honored by Wilson himself. This was so because the material for the nose is to come from one of Wilson's ribs.

"It's a question of having plenty of ribs, as it were—and not enough nose," said the philosophical patient. "I think I can get along without part of them. Adam gave up an entire rib when he wanted a wife."

Wilson's nose was injured eighteen months ago.

Eagles Carried Away Stock.

Kingfisher, Okla.—Vigilantes, organized among the farmers after pigs, lambs and other small stock had been carried off, captured four enormous golden-headed eagles and killed a fifth. Recently an infant child disappeared and gypsies were blamed. The eagles are now considered the culprits.

Death in Drinking Feat.

Joliet, Ill.—George Houser, a teamster, staggered that he could drink a schooner of beer at one swallow. He drank the beer, but fell dead on the floor of the saloon.

Robins on a "Tear."

Lyerly, Ga.—Thousands of robins have been made drunk by eating china berries. They lie around to sleep off the effects and then return hurriedly to the china berry tree.

Eleven-Year-Old Boy Serving Long Term for Matricide.

Little Murderer Not Allowed to Mingle With Other Prisoners—Plays Outside Walls in His Striped Suit—No Regret for Killing.

Boise, Idaho.—James Whittaker, scarcely eleven years old, is serving a term of from ten to 50 years in the Idaho state penitentiary for the murder of his mother. Clad in the regulation prison garb of a striped suit made with knee trousers, the child is confined not far from the cell of Harry Orchard.

The young convict is not allowed to associate with the convicts in the prison yards, but is kept in the library, where, under the direction of the warden and the librarian, the little fellow daily studies and recites his lessons in much the same manner as he did before he was taken from the schoolroom. The librarian, who is known as a "trustee," is the only prisoner with whom the boy is permitted to associate.

Whittaker has been a prisoner at the institution only two months, but he has unusual privileges. Although Bertillon measurements have been taken and he has been photographed and numbered "1949," the warden and the guards do not believe for a moment that the boy prisoner will try to escape.

The ordinary prisoner must have served the greater part of his sentence before receiving the freedom of the prison grounds outside the walls, but Whittaker's case is a singular one, and when the boy is not studying or reciting his lessons, he may be seen about the outside of the walls playing hide and seek with the warden's children or amusing himself by teasing the bloodhounds.

Not every liberty has been granted to the boy, however, for at five o'clock, when the gong sounds, he files through the great iron gateway. In a clear, shrill voice he gives his number to the turnkey, who counts him as one among the 260 prisoners.

Young Whittaker, in August, 1912, shot and instantly killed his mother on a ranch near Sarilla, Fremont county. The mother was doing the family washing. She did not have sufficient strength with which to turn the wringer. She asked her son to help her. He refused.

His father spanked him and ordered him to do the work. He did not turn the wringer fast enough to suit his mother, so she spanked him. Shortly afterwards she left the house. When she returned the child had procured his father's shotgun. Without saying a word, he pointed the weapon at his mother and fired.

Specialists believe that the child's mind is unbalanced, although at all times he appears to be rational.

What is considered the strangest feature of the case is that the boy shows no feeling of remorse for having killed his mother.

BLUFFS HIM OUT OF SHOES

Methodist Minister Takes Off His Footwear to Give to Beggar, Who Accepts Proffer.

Portland, Ore.—The Rev. Benjamin Young, of the First Methodist church, has been bluffed out of his shoes.

A wanderer "on his uppers" accosted Dr. Young at his home. As he received a contribution his eyes rested covetously upon the shoes that covered the minister's feet.

Dr. Young said:

"You need a pair of shoes."

"You bet I do," was the reply.

"Would you wear these if I offered them to you?"

"Take 'em off and give me the chance."

Dr. Young wouldn't back out. He sat on the steps and took off his shoes and soon the visitor was going merrily down the street, well shod.

The minister looked at the shoes left behind for a moment, and then, in the view of the whole neighborhood, pattered up his front steps in his stocking feet and went quietly in search of a pair of carpet slippers.

Has Fit When Told to Wash.

Chicago.—Leonard Harris, aged twenty-nine, who says he has no home, doesn't mind taking a bath. He merely had a fit the other day when informed by the Hyde Park police, whose unwilling guest he was, that he would have to wash his face. It took fifteen minutes to revive him and another half hour to induce him to make his ablutions. The police had considered forcing him to take a complete bath, but after this experience they decided to leave that task to the bridewell authorities to whom Harris was sent.

Fourth Victim in Murder Series.

New York.—A man found murdered on the Forest park golf links, in Queensborough, is the fourth mysterious case of murder in Brooklyn within ten days, with the victim in each case an Italian. The body was hidden under a pile of leaves, with a stiletto across the breast and an ice pick nearby. The body had been stabbed many times.

Ninety-Year-Old Man a Father.

The Ready Reformer.

Mrs. Winfall, a society woman, always allowed the housekeeper to hire her servants.

One morning, however, the mistress wished to interview the cook, who had been engaged only the day before.

"What is your name?" inquired the lady.

"Mrs. McCarty," replied the cook.

"Do you expect to be called Mrs. McCarty?"

"Oh, no, ma'am, not if you have an alarm clock!"—Harper's Magazine.

Improved Conditions.

The father, anxious to impress his offspring with a spirit of thankfulness, repeated at the supper table, as he had often done before:

"Remember, children, when I was a boy I often went to bed hungry and seldom had a square meal."

"Well, that shows how much better off you are since you have known us," replied little Willie, who was tired of hearing about it.—Judge.

A Quaker Oath.

Two small boys in a family of Friends, writes a contributor, had a disagreement, during which the older boy became very much incensed.

Finally, no longer able to control himself, he took his brother by the shoulder and shook him, with the exclamation, "Oh, thee little you, thee!"

Then as the enormity of his offense came over him, he said, in a changed voice, "Don't tell mother I swore!"—Youth's Companion.

MORE APPROPRIATE.

Cholly—The idea of Grace leaving me and saying she had other fish to fry! Do you think that was proper? Marion—I should say not! She should have said she had other lobster to broil.

Editors Are So Mean.

A bird who sang in summer time composed a pleasing bit of rhyme. Though autumn's come, to his regret, He hasn't sold that jingle yet.

Business Associations.

"Was there much fuss about the telephone girl's breaking her engagement?"

"No—simply a case of ring off."

His Inclinations.

"I saw that old yachtsman lurching toward the sideboard just now."

"I see he is evidently listing to port."

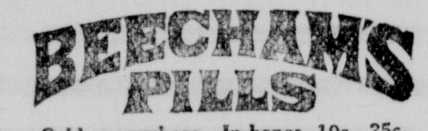

A Slap at Mother.

"Pa, what is an 'open letter'?"

PUGILIST PRAYS IN THE RING

Fighter Makes Supplication of Delty Before Beginning to Hammer His Opponent.

London—Johnny Summers, the welterweight boxer champion of England, who retained Lord Londale's belt symbolizing that distinction by defeating Syd Burns at the National Sporting club the other night, is a devout Catholic.

Just before the fight began Summers knelt in his corner, bowed his head reverently and made the sign of the cross. Then he sprang to his feet like a panther, dashed at his man and with both hands did his best to hammer the sense out of him.

At the end of each round Summers turned down his left sock and touched a rosary that was wound around his ankle, and at the call of time to start each bout he dropped on one knee and passed his right hand across his face.

When the fight was over, and he had conquered on points after twenty fierce rounds, Summers again dropped to his knees in his corner.

Although in such a place and at such time the actions of Summers seemed utterly incongruous, there was not even a titter from the assemblage of sports and fighting men. Indeed, not a few present were obviously moved by the simple faith and courage of the man.

All the Qualifications. Among a large number of amusing letters received by David Belasco was the following: "Venerated Sir:

"Wishing to go on the stage, would like to join your forces. Have been a bricklayer for five years, but having failed in this branch have decided to take up acting, the same being easier work. I am not young, but six feet in my stocking feet. Have studied elocution and am fond of late hours."—Everybody's.
